Basic Russian Language II	4	3	1	0	As per university rules	Students who have already opted for GE-1 (BRL-I) in Russian in either Semester I or II (Alternative semester)

Aims & Objectives :

- This course is structured for students who have previously attained a foundational understanding of the Russian language.
- Participants will engage in an in-depth exploration of various linguistic elements throughout the course.
- The curriculum will address advanced grammatical concepts, distinguishing them from the prior semester, and will place particular focus on enhancing Russian vocabulary and syntactical comprehension.
- Upon completion of this course, students will not only achieve proficiency in everyday conversational Russian but will also cultivate an interest in the practice of translation across multiple languages.

Learning outcomes :

- ✓ Upon completion of this course, students will be expected to convey both oral and written information accurately in Russian.
- ✓ Additionally, they will acquire the skills necessary to function as translators and interpreters across multiple languages.
- ✓ This program offers a distinct advantage for those interested in conducting research related to Russian, as students will have the capability to gather written and oral data independently, without the need to rely on another language for effective communication.
